HERMENCOIA DEFEATS ORONTAS.

The cold weather of yesterday kept the attendance at Lakeside down to the regulars, but those that went out to the Indiana track were well repaid for their visit as the contests proved in most cases to be the most exciting of the week. A crisp, heavy wind blew all afternoon but despite this fact comparatively fast time was made. Four favorites out of six scored. The betting was brisk and fairly heavy.

The principal race of the day was the fourth, a dash of one mile for three-year-olds and upward. Hermencia with Coburn in the saddle was made a 7 to 5 favorite and rewarded the confidence placed in him by his many backers by winning in easy fashion. He took the lead at flag fall and simply played with his field, winning easily by two lengths from Orontas, which beat Wayward Boy one for second place. Orontas closed up fast in the last eighth but the distance was too short for him. W. J. Deboe's effort was far below his best form and he gradually fell away beaten after the first quarter had been run. Wayward Boy ran a fairly good race but tired in the stretch drive.

To the surprise of many Puryear, whose showings of late have been consistently poor, took the first race, a four and one-half furlongs scramble, by a head from Smith's Reel in a dingdong finish. Crescent City was third, one length away. He was outrun in the early part of the race but closed up fast in the last eighth. Fade Meny, the favorite, was never a serious contender, the weight appearing to anchor him. Andes proved to be a shade the best in the second race, a six and a half furlongs dash, beating Maggie Davis a neck on the post after a spirited finish down through the last eighth. The latter stood a long drive down the last quarter and showed gameness. Henry of Trastamare was third, four lengths back. He made up much ground in the last half and is ready to win if placed right.

The third race, a six furlongs scramble for two-year-olds went to Pyrrho, which contrary to former showings, dashed into the lead at the barrier's rise and remained there to the end. He won by two lengths easily from Amote, which finished one and a half in front of John A. Clarke for second place. The last named was made a 6 to 5 favorite, but ran far below the good form he had shown several days before. Otis had him trailing back of his field up to the turn for home. He closed up fast thereafter, but too late to be of any avail.

Free Pass barely got his head under the wire in front of Sarilla in the fifth race, a dash of one and one-sixteenth miles. The latter closed up stoutly in the last eighth and would have been returned the winner in another stride. Linden Ella finished third, two lengths away. Myth showed a lot of speed for seven furlongs, but died away fast when the pinch came.

Fantasy was much the best in the finale, a split of the preceding race. She moved up fast when turning for home and came away without much trouble, winning by five lengths from Donator, which beat Isabey a head for second place. Precursor showed a lot of speed and held a commanding lead to the stretch turn, but tired badly in the straight run for home.

The entry of the horse Hanswurst will be refused in future at Lakeside.

Judge Hamilton called Otis up in the stand after the third race and lectured him for his indifferent ride on John A. Clarke.

The sale of thoroughbreds advertised to take place yesterday in the Lakeside paddock has been postponed to Saturday.

15 to 1 Good Thing Friday.

Here is one that we advise a big plunge on, is in splendid condition, and the race is practically over—in fact won according to the sensational work of this good thing Wednesday. The very best good thing we have had at Lakeside. Two other good things in third and fourth races. At least 3 to 1 will be laid against these two. Take one hundred dollars ($100) to the track with you today and parley on the above three good things and you will have the best chance of your existence to win a bank roll. DO YOU REALLY WANT TO WIN? Yes, you say. Well, then, let us, men who have made a life long study of the sport of racing, who have made other men wealthy, ADVISE YOU.

Saturday 10 to 20 to 1 Getaway Day Good Thing.

You must not miss this one. Customers outside of Chicago please send your mail order as early as possible. TERMS: $1.00 PER DAY. $4.00 PER WEEK. READY AT 9 A. M.

Went to post at 3:21. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. It was only a romp for Bedeck and he galloped under restraint all the way. John McGurk ran to his best form. Rush Fields can do much better. The Singer showed a lot of speed but could not stay.

Fine Shot showed much improvement and ran an excellent race. Censor finished well. Flamaro got mixed up at the start and never fairly got into his stride. Princess Titania ran a fairly good race. Blanche Sheppard can do much better.

Winner—Ch. f. by Pirate of Penzance—Sayonara.
Went to post at 2:21. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second the same. Huntressa caught Kindred on the stretch turn and the difference in weight enabled her to draw away in the run home. At that had Kindred had another race in him he would in all probability have won, as he tired in the last sixteenth as if short. Springwells was badly handled and should have been much closer up. May allowed him to swerve badly in the stretch. Miss Aubrey made up much ground from a bad beginning. Miss Guido weakened in the last quarter.

Winner—Ch. b. by Pirate of Penzance—Thrifty.
Went to post at 3:53. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Banquo II. was off well in motion and Walker kept him hard at it all the way. He was under a hard drive in the last furlong to stall off Bigger. The latter finished resolutely and but for meeting with early interference should have won. Omelia ran well under punishment and showed improvement. Battus showed speed, but weakened when the test came. Pan Charm was possibly short and will improve from this race.

MR. HAGGIN'S LATEST.

Mr. J. B. Haggin, of the Rancho del Paso and Elmendorf studs, has just secured another highly bred English stallion for his thoroughbred enterprise in the six-year-old horse Greenan, by St. Simon—Sunrise. Greenan, who was bred by Mr. J. H. Houldsworth, has always raced in that gentleman's "green and gold, yellow cap." His victories as a three-year-old in 1898 comprised the Great National Breeders' Foal Stakes at Redcar, for which he started favorite at 5 to 4, and won by two lengths, and the $5,000 Great Yorkshire Stakes at York. The latter race was at a mile and three-quarters, and Greenan accomplished a neck victory over Batt, who had earlier in the year been beaten less than a length by Jeddah in the Epsom Derby. As a four-year-old Greenan won the $5,000 Great Whitesnide Handicap at Hurst Park from a strong field, subsequent to running a close second to Mr. L. O. Appleby's horse Knight of the Thistle in the Kempton Park "Jubilee" Stakes. Later in the same year Greenan had the hard luck to be defeated a short head by the six-year-old Cascock's Pride for the $5,000 Great Elor Handicap, one mile and three-quarters, at York. Greenan carried 126 pounds in this race, conceding weight to every one of his ten opponents, of whom Cascock's Pride carried only 111. The third horse was Sinopi, then a three-year-old, which has this year been unbeaten in the colors of Mr. Foxhall Keane.

Greenan's career in 1900, while marked by no victories, witnessed him score a creditable second under 115 pounds to Strike a Light (four years, 112 pounds) in the Great Whitesnide Handicap, one mile and a half, at Hurst Park, for which race he was again the top weight.

On the score of bloodiness Greenan is very choice. His sire, St. Simon, is easily the champion stallion of the age, while Greenan's dam Sunrise, is most beautifully bred, being by Springfield—Sunray, she by King of the Forest—Sunshine, she by Thormanby—Sunbeam, which won the St. Leger of 1855.

The family is a great one. Sunrise has herself produced Dunure, a full brother to Greenan, which is a successful stallion on the Continent. Greenan's half sister, Greeba, is the dam of Eager, England's best milker of the last decade. Sunshine, Greenan's third dam, also produced Bushey Park and Napoli, the latter being the dam of Orvieto and Lareno, respectively winners of the Kempton Park "Jubilee" and the £10,000 Jockey Club Stakes.

This blood has already scored in America, for Peep o' Day's dam, Sundown, is by Springfield—Sunshine, and Greenan's dam is therefore bred on exactly the same lines, with the addition of a King of the Forest cross. The dam of Sunbeam was Sunflower (by Bay Middleton), to which Voter, America's champion milker of recent years, traces directly the female line.—Daily America.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The racing privileges at the South Carolina Interstate and West Indian Exposition were disposed of at Charleston Tuesday night for $35,000 to W. Brooks Harley & Co. Associated with Mr. Harley are H. C. Jordan and W. P. Nuckols of Richmond, Va. The Wagener track will be put in excellent condition by Mr. C. J. Hill of St. Asaph, who has charge of the racing end of the exposition. The meeting will follow that at Danings and will run for thirty-six days. The ring will be an open one and the booking privileges will be but $50 per day.

Charles T. Boots was seriously injured Monday by a pet deer at his ranch near Milpitas, Northern California. Having just fed the animals, Boots was leaving the paddock when a buck charged him and thrust his sharp pointed horn into his breast. His lung is badly torn. Keeping pet deer is a fad of Boots'.

G. A. H., Chicago. Eophone and Miss Mitchell were entered as the property of J. E. Widener in the first race at Morris Park, Monday, October 21. There was no J. H. Lewis, Jr., entry in the race.

Jockey Troxler, who had to cancel his engagements Tuesday on account of a sore throat, is now reported to be very ill and threatened with diphtheria.

PEDIGREE BLANKS.

On linen paper, artistically edged in colors, ruled and arranged for six generations of sires and dams of individuals and their ancestors. Ten cents each, $1.00 per dozen, $3.50 per hundred. No owner of a stallion should be without a supply.
